- [Teacher] If you wanna provide better security for your data, and possibly if you've got multiple users using the same workbook, you wanna be aware of two commands. One for protecting the workbook, one for protecting the worksheet. We're looking at the file 11-Protection, and the very first sheet is called Worksheet Protection. Let's first talk about protecting a workbook.

- [Instructor] Sometimes, when you're working with a file that has many sheets in it, you need to see more than one worksheet at a time. Also, at certain times, you might have different files open, and you might want to see different files at the same time on the same screen. Let's focus on the first idea. There's a worksheet here that has many, many sheets.
