Headless Horseman Bridge. Unfortunately, the bridge where Ichabod Crane was unseated by a pumpkin is the most popular destination in Sleepy Hollow that doesn't exist—at least, not in the form and location in which it appeared in Washington Irving's short story The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. Whatever simple wooden span crossed...

Sleepy Hollow (season 3) - Wikipedia

Sleepy Hollow meets Bones, and everything stays the same. When a super-hero appears in a different super-hero's city, that makes sense; heroes live in a shared world. But we don't make that assumption with TV shows, or at least I never have. It's especially odd here, given that Bones so clearly follows a skeptic's philosophy.

Sleepy Hollow meets Bones, and everything stays the same

The two sprint along the road, until Gunpowder misses the path to Sleepy Hollow and instead dashes downhill to the left towards the famous bridge and church. Already, we see that Ichabod is not only frightened by the figure on a horseback, but by what that figure represents—particularly, here, the role it played in the story told by Brom Bones.
