Slice Of Cherry Dia Reeves

Dia Reeves is like a bucket of cold water on YA lit's face...and I mean that in the best way. Her debut novel, Bleeding Violet, turned paranormal inside out and made it fascinating, in a sexy and gruesome sort of way. Her sophomore novel, SLICE OF CHERRY, is like a twisted childhood fantasy come true. Which is to say that I LOVED it.

Book Review: Slice of Cherry by Dia Reeves

review 1: This was a lot more gory and disturbing than I thought it would be from reading the back cover. To the point where I wouldn't read it before bed. It wasn't scary, just... icky. For a while, I was worried it would just be a yucky story about the sisters killing people in various h...

Slice of Cherry was good in the way an acid trip is good (not that I've experienced one but I feel like this book would compare). Crazy things happen that no one thinks twice about, the characters hold exactly zero morals, and you are forced to empathize with a bratty psychopath.
