Six Seconds Rick Mofina

Six Seconds is not your typical thriller in that there isn't an degree of suspense as to "who done it." I think every reader knew what was going to happen. What was important in this book was the journey to the climax. I rather liked the protagonist, the Canadian Mountie, Daniel Graham.

Six Seconds by Rick Mofina - Goodreads

Rick Mofina weaves a most gripping tale of conspiracy to assassinate the Pope and the book takes you through the plot as it is unraveled. The main players are the least connected with the plot and far removed. A mother, whose son goes missing from school and the husband disappears, is frantic to locate the son and husband.
