Secrets of a Summer Village - Kindle edition by Saskia ...

Book 1 (Secrets of a Summer Village) is a coming of age mainstream fiction/YA crossover. It's fairly light-hearted, upbeat, and positive. The feedback I've gotten is that it makes readers feel good and learn something at the same time. It also makes you feel good when you're writing happy, positive stuff. That said, I don't want to write fluff.

Writing in my Head: What kind of writer do I want to be?

In "Secrets of a Summer Village", 17 year old Rachel Guo finds herself spending part of a once-in-a-lifetime summer with a Turkish family in a village situated on the western coast of Turkey.
