Had a super fun time with our nephew Jett this week! He was working locally and bunked at our place. We ate a lot and nearly drank our weight in boba tea!. These were the last photos I took of him, some seven years ago, when he was shorter than me, so it was about time we updated that situation.. He's since graduated from high school and started work as an electrician's apprentice.

When an L.A. chef is heralded as the absolute best, you might expect the food to appear in a fancy restaurant that serves $30 entrées and $16 cocktails. Lucky for those of us who love excellent Mexican food without high prices and chichi ambience, there is the understated Rocio's Mexican Kitchen in Bell Gardens.

We toured the teen hangout, Vibe, shortly after boarding the ship and I was very impressed with the facilities, which are located on the top deck far from younger children. I'm sure most teens would have had a blast hanging out there playing video and board games, listening to music, attending dance parties and making new friends. My 16 year old, who had just finished Christmas exams, went to ...
