Solution Based Selling

Solution selling is a sales methodology. Rather than just promoting an existing product, the salesperson focuses on the customer's problems and addresses the issue with appropriate offerings (product and services). The problem resolution is what constitutes a "solution". Solution selling is usually used in sales situations where products are just one of the elements that lead to a solution.

Consultative selling techniques are based on the methods used by professional consultants. Think how a doctor or a lawyer treats a client. They usually start by sitting down and asking a series of questions about the client's history, then a more specific series of questions about the current problem.
