INTERVIEW WITH JESSE BALL. Writer, poet, and visual artist Jesse Ball lives in a world of experimentation. Known for his spare prose and stylistic playfulness, Ball's latest novel, Silence Once Begun, is an exercise in truth-telling and form, with a narrative curiously mapped out using tools often at the disposal of a journalist. Rather ...

Silence Once Begun by Jesse Ball - Penguin Random House

The first novel I read by Jesse Ball was How to Set a Fire and Why, and there was immediately something unique about his writing style that appealed to me. I set out to get Census from the library, and ended up getting Silence Once Begun instead without really knowing anything about it. In hindsight, it's somewhat understandable that I had difficulty figuring out what the book was about from ...
