Fan Fiction Review: The Shoebox Project by Lady Jaida and Dorkorific. Hosted on their website, shoebox.lomara.org. I swear everything you've heard about this is true, this is that good. But I think it's best to go in knowing that this story ends abruptly: it's got an ending that dangles you 20 feet above your destination - the place that anyone who has read the Harry Potter books knows it will end.

Cowritten by Jaida Jones and Rave (who also drew the illustrations.) The Shoebox Project follows the Marauders from the summer before sixth year through the first year or so of life after Hogwarts. It's a (very realistic) Remus/Sirius and James/Lily ship story, but fans also love it for its wit, style, excellent dialogue, and thoughtful ...
