In an essay in Blue Notes (2000), Komunyakaa writes, "Poetry is the primary medium I have chosen because of the conciseness, the precision, the imagery, and the music in the lines. I think of language as our first music." The poem "Slam, Dunk, & Hook" illustrates these qualities. In a poem based on the rhythms of jazz and the basketball court, Komunyakaa compactly addresses the thorny issues ...
