Solstice Wood Winter Rose 2

Solstice Wood is a loose sequel to Winter Rose, set a few generations later in the same place. That gives it a really weird feel, because it's very much rooted in place and time, while Winter Rose could be almost anywhere, anywhen.

Lynne W. - , reviewed Solstice Wood (Winter Rose, Bk 2) on 5/8/2009 + 5 more book reviews. I picked this up on a whim and found myself thoroughly enjoying it. The characters are realistic so that the fantasy is in the story, not in the way the people react and behave. It was a fast, easy read, perfect for when you want something light but not ...

Solstice Wood, by Patricia A. McKillip, is the sequel to Winter Rose, a love story about a human woman who fell in love with a "fay" man. Solstice Wood is set in the same American town, and the same house, but in modern times.

Solstice Wood book by Patricia A. McKillip - Thriftbooks

Solstice Wood is somewhat of a sequel to McKillip's enchanting book, Winter Rose--but not completely. This book is set in the same place, but in the modern era, many generations later, and although there are a few mentions of Rois Melior, the main character of Winter Rose, she does not actually feature in the story.

Solstice Wood (2007) ... This is my second time reading this, which is a sequel to Winter Rose. The first time, I hadn't read Winter Rose in a couple of years and so couldn't directly compare them, and I felt as though Solstice Wood stood up reasonably well. This time, I read them back to back, and oh dear, I thought Winter Rose was much better ...
