And they blend the two perfectly in the Shift book. Now I still read the Brennen series but now I also read the Virals series to my son who is five weeks away from being born. Hope to share my love of reading to him and I think this series is perfect for him. Thanks Kathy and Brendan Reichs. Keep on writing and I will keep on reading.

I would liken this to a "cleanser," a book to read between two heavier, deeper novels. "Shift" can be read without the reader reading the other Virals Adventures, but of course, it's always nice to have read the first two so you can better understand the group. I enjoy Kathy Reichs, and the Virals series is a fun series.

Virals - Wikipedia

Shift is about an 80 page short story. Kathy Reichs writes so well that stories seem to flow smooth and fast. What I liked best about this story is that many of the chapters were written from different characters perspectives. That made for interesting story telling and increased character insight.
