Third year medical student Raj Mok quickly learns that patients don't behave like his beloved medical texts led him to believe. The seven most outrageous patients of his first year in clinical medicine teach Raj that medicine isn't always about healing and that killing isn't always murder.

Seven Patients eBook: Atul Kumar: Amazon.ca: Kindle Store

Seven Patients by Atul Kumar is a medical thriller narrated by Raj Mok, a third-year medical student who is learning at a hospital. This is a work of fiction, kind of like a hospital TV show with a lot of drama and extreme cases. Basically, it's a collect of hospital horror stories. I found it to be entertaining and thought provoking.
